HON. HENRY EEMAS.

HONOR TO DEMAS.

THE BLACK PRINCE OF THE SOUTH, WELCOMED. THE GRAND ARMY HALL CROWDED.

From The New Orleans Republican.

What should be called a monster overflow meeting was the assemblage of regular republicans at the G. A. R. hall on the 13th inst., to honor the return of Hon. Henry Demas, recently appointed Naval Officer for the port of New Orleans.

It was an enthusiastic, distinctly republican meeting, and all things connected therewith were carried on at a corresponding lively gait. The hall had received the artistic touch of the hand of the decorator, and "Old Glory" fell in graceful folds above the speaker's platform.

The scene was cheerfully brightened and enlivened by the festoons of gray moss and gayly colored lanterns suspended in the air and a brass band.

Long before 8 o'clock the hall was literally packed like sardines in a box with a vociferous crowd of old and young republicans and battle-scared warriors, eager to pay their tribute of respect and honor to their leader and champion of the race. Honorable and Comrade Henry Demas, who for the past six months continuously had been in Washington battling to maintain and preserve the principles of true republicanism, as against the onslaughts of his enemies, who would have the Grand Old Party amend its fundamental platform with a plank of race prejudice.

At the hour fixed for calling the meeting to order, Hon. Alexander

THEY SAY.

It is wrong to stab your friends.

Some people believe all they hear.

A good politician will believe both sides.

The more you do for some people the more you are mistrusted.

The less some people do for you, the more they are appreciated.

It is better some times to do less for those in whom you most confide.

A deceitful man will deceive you and betray you to your enemies.

Be truthful in all things and false in none.

Dr. Williams of the Freedmen's hospital is a fighter.

You cannot lick him by threats. He can give you two in a hand and beat you at your own game.

We try to please everybody when you please no one.

There should be new blood in the High and Normal schools.

Superintendent Cook should be consulted about our schools.

Dr. Williams of the Freedmen's hospital is making a record.

The BEE congratulates him on his success.

The trustees of the public schools will be judges of offenses.

Supervising principals should know their places.

The entire board of trustees needs a reconstruction.

A man who is on all sides cannot be trusted.

Ex-Senator John P. Green will make some speeches in Ohio.

The National Republican Committee will conduct the campaign in this city.

The republican party will win in 1900.

Never desert those who have been your friends.

The libel suit against Dr. Williams will be weighed in the balances and found wanting.

Men who give blows should be willing to take blows and not institute libel suits.

The BEE is the people's paper.

There are some deserving normal school graduates still out in the cold.

Dr. Francis has backbone and don't you forget it.

The conspiracy against Dr. Williams will not work.

He will not be removed and don't you forget it.

The colored attorney is a small article in the estimation of some people.

E. M. Hewlett has backbone and don't you forget it.

He is no white man's tool, nor is he lacking in manhood.

Lookout for the great political edition of The BEE.

If you want a live paper read The BEE it is the paper.

Public Printer Palmer will do the right thing.

Be useful to the community in which you live.

An honest man has nerve.

Don't be alarmed when the dogs bark.

Major McKinley has estabilised a new leadership.

J. T. C. Newsom will be reinstated in the Pension Office.

Treachery and infidelity will be found out.

Recorder Cheatham is cleaning his office of rubbish.

A few more scrubbing will have the filth out entirely.

The Post is to be congratulated on its excellent editorial.

Dr. Williams will not leave the Freedmen's hospital until he feels like it.

Some colored people will not pay their subscription to colored papers.

Do you want the news?

Our Alexandria correspondent will get live news for The BEE.

Help your friends all you can.

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." The Editor has no time to see the subscribers, and it is hoped that his friends and the patrons of THE BEE will pay the Collector when he calls.

SENATOR HANNA'S ATTITUDE.

The speeches delivered by Senator Hanna in the opening of the Ohio campaign show to special advantage two important traits—frankness and generalship. In respect to the first, he showed an honesty which invited scrutiny into all of his official and business relations and expressed a willingness to abide by the decision of the impartial electors of his State. In the treatment of the question of the strikes by which his interests were to a greater or less extent affected in his business he declared himself in their favor, and maintained that labor organizations, controlled by wisdom and honesty, in the interest of wage-workers were as acceptable to the manufacturer and other emp oyes as they were beneficial to the laborer. He defended the laborer against the charge of socialism and misrule and placed the blame upon the true element; namely, that restless foreign element who, dissatisfied with their native homes and opposed to all correct social organization, are sowing the seeds of discord and discontent wherever they find it possible. No reference was made to those honest, frugal and industrious people who leave Europe for the purpose of bettering their condition and honestly contributing to the common weal. On the contrary, he professed to be their true friend. He also m intained that, during the long period during which he had been engaged in manufacturing and commercial pursuits, he had yet to find one man in his employ who had just ground to com lain of exactions inconsistent with the pay he was receiving. And what is more, Senator Hanna has repeatedly invited the closest relationship and confidence consistent with proper discipline. He is said to have frequently gone into the shops and made inquiry as to whether there was any discontent by reason of harsh treatment on the part of superi ntendents and others entrusted with supervision.

This would seem to indicate that Senator Hanna is not the character he has been caricatured by designing and unprincipled demagogues, but in fact possesses an honorable and just regard for the rights and interests of all with whom he has business.

The gener lship displayed in this frankness is peculiar and commendable. It is the sort of spirit which inspires confidence and will no doubt enlist the support of all honest citizens.

Since it has been decided to have a competitive examination to decide the most capable applicant for musical director, let it be an oral examination, and such a one as will demonstrate the ability of the would be director to give instruction in music.

By the way, Trustee Harries, who is a practical musician, would be a worthy accession to the examining committee. He is without personal interest and satisfaction at the result would be assured.

The appointment of Prof. H. M. Brown, at the head of the High school would be an improvement. Strange the trustees cannot see it.

HILL FAILED.

National Committeeman Hill, after waiting for seven months in this city, and dealing out offices in Mississippi to white men, not having named a single colored man, was surprised last Saturday when he called upon the President, who informed him that he would not appoint him Internal Revenue Collector for Mississippi and Louisiana, the biggest office in the State and which the Colonel had selected for his, but had decided to give him Register of the Land Office at Jackson, Mississippi.

Of the seven big offices outside of the post offices, this one is the smallest in the South within the gift of the President, the salary being but $500 and fees. Since nearly all the lands have been isposed of in that State it is doubtful if the fees will bring it up to $1,-500, and yet the great leader must take this or nothing.

"What a fall, my countrymen!"

The constant appeal to which the leaders of silver and socialism are resorting for the purpose of hoodwinking the colored voters into opposition of Senator Hanna is as ridiculous as it is stupid. The experience of the average colored voter under democratic rule and dictation has been anything but favorable to a stampede into their embrace. The fact is that while the rank and file of colored voters do not expect official recognition, yet they are pleased to see an inclination on the part of the administration to award merit in the appointment of Hon. J. P. Green. The Ohio voter is satisfied with the party and with Senator Hanna, because the party and he, as its honored representative stand as the friends of the doctrine of equality before the law and a fair chance to all in the race for place and power.

THE MARYLAND SITUATION.

The situation in Maryland is particularly interesting. While the republicans have thrown Senator Wellington over-board they seem not to have succeeded in making him food for sharks. He is reported as having the same pull with the administration and the destiny of the party in his own dear hands. Meanwhile the anti-Wellington factions are going it alone and seem to be quite as happy as the "Duke." It would be interesting to ascertain how the opposing factions will be able to get together and carry the state and further, how the basis upon which the "fruits of labor" will be distributed. But speculation useless and we must wait and see.

VIRGINIA.

With Senator Daniel and Gov. O'Ferrell at sword's point, it would seem that the managers of the republican party might open a way to secure something like success this fall. The main trouble seems to be that the republicans who are for the most part colored are led by too many would-be bosses If a way could be devised by which to officially decapitate the surplus, there would be a tolerable show of success. The time has come when it should be made unprofitable for designing white politicians to exploit in colored votes, for their own selfish ends.

The rot and gush that eminates from our next door neighbor, weekly, is sickening and nauseating. What kind of a term does a person have to complete in the Recorder's office? If the editor is endeavoring to pull wool over the eyes of the people of Texas please spare the people of this city of such rot.

If the new board of trustees want to do the people a favor please abolish the offices of supervising principals. They are dead ezpense to the people.

Some politicans have an idea that a great deal can be gained by kicking. Kickers generally get left.

SENATOR BRUCE SCORES AN IMPORTA VICTORY.

For some time a big contest has been waged between the Hill and Lynch faction for the appointment of a postmaster at Jackson, Miss., the home office of Natoinal Committeeman Hill.

Last Wednesday Senator Bruce, in company with his old friend and staunch supporter, Hon. Henry Kernaghan, called upon the President and requested the appiontment of the latter to the office, who informed the senator that his friend should have the appointment. Saturday Col. Kernaghan was nominated for the office.

This is one of the best paying post-offices in the State. The promptness with which the President acted is a high compliment to Mr. Bruce, this being the first and only request he has made of him for any one in the State since his inauguration.

Keep an eye on the Senator and his fine Italian hand. Under a different leadership for the past twenty years, the Colonel, under ev ery former republican administration, always was given the biggest and best paying office in the State—but then there is a vast difference in leadership, you know.

Things have changed.

We congratulate the Col. upon his splendid leadership and his new office.

Col. Hill of Mississippi will learn how to attend to his own business hereafter.

The ovation to Demas verifies the Bee's statement.

President McKinley is true to his promises.

What advantage will it be to the colored man to desert the house of his friends and go to his enemies?

Let everybody go to work and help to secure 50,000 subscribers for the BEE, the greatest paper published

AS THE BEE PREDICTED.

THE BEE never makes a mistake. Sometime ago it predicted that President McKinley would do the right thing toward his faithful colored a lies. He is keeping his promises and THE BEE predicts greater things in store for the negro. Let the kickers kick, but let the wise ones do the thinking.

Read The BEE if you want a live paper.

The Ohio campaign is getting hot.

Unhappy is the man who hangs on official favors.

The BEE is free to admit that it has made a mistake in Justice Tay lor. Judges Kimball, Scott, Miller, Mills and others have a different opinion of certain lawyers who practice at the bar.

The philosophy of Negro suffrage by Dr. Jerome R. Riley will cause a great deal of anxiety in political circles.

The colored republicans in Ohio have learned better sense

Ralph W. Tyler knows how to hustle.

It is much easier for a man to tell the truth than it is to tell a lie. A truthful man is bound to succeed, but a liar is bound to fail.

When a superintendent is to be subordinate to one-horse supervising principals it is about time to abolish his office.

The removal of Miss Grace Dyson from the principalship of her school is to be investigated by the Commissioners. There will be several sensational disclosures which will result in the decapitation of some one's official head.

There are kickers in Maryland.

If the colored vote leaves the republican party what is to be gained?

TEN DOLLARS A WEEK FOR EIGHT.

It does not seem possible that the table for eight people can be provided for ten dollars a week. But Mrs. Rorer, the most famous cook in America, says it can be done. She has tried it and knows. She proves her case in The Ladies' Home Journal for October. She gives twenty-one menus covering a week's meals, and gives full, practical directions by which any woman can make as attractive meals as Mrs. Rorer explains for this small sum of ten dollars.

Mrs. Recorder Cheatham has not as yet become sufficiently acclamated.

Miss Fannie Toliver of this city, a very enterprising young lady has accepted a position in Jersey City, N. J. She will leave for her new field of labor about the first of October.

Miss Helen Adams who is gaining quite a reputation as a vocalist will soon appear in a drama.

Miss Emma McGinnis and Mrs. Rev. Burwell arrived in the city from Newport News, Va., last Sunday morning.

Dr. Jerome R. Riley who has been prosecuting his suit in Hartford, Conn. will return to the city in few days.

Mrs. Dr. Wm. L. Tignor of South Washington, has returned to the city greatly benefited by her summer outing in the mountains of Va.

Mrs. H. P. Cheatham, wife of the Recorder of Deeds, is reported to be on the sick list and under the care of Dr. David Williams of the Freedmen's hospital.

Mrs. Amanda Harris-Yancey, formerly of this city, but now of Reading, Pa., was in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. Lucy Sayles of I street, northwest.

Mrs. Arbuckle of Pierce Place, n. w. is very sick.

Mrs. Frank Bundy has returned to the city after a pleasant stay in Richmond, Va.

The schools opened on Monday and many smiling faces were seen among the boys and girls as well as the school marms and masters.

Mrs. R. E. Lawson has returned to the city after a delightful trip to Nashville, Tenn.

Rev. W. H. Brooks was absent from his pulpit last Sunday morning, which was filled by Rev. A. W. Shields who delivered a very good sermon.

At the song services at the Metropolitan church last Sunday night, Miss Helen Adams sang a beautiful solo.

Mr. Clarence White is considered one of the finest violinist in this city. At the entertainment at the residence of Mr. H. J. Europe last week, he displayed wonderful talent.

Mrs. Louise Grinnel, nee, Washington, after a long stay out of the city, has returned again, to permanently reside here.

The Senior choir of the 19th Street, church rendered excellent music last Sunday morning. Miss Blennie Bruce presided at the organ. This choir was relieved from singing during the heated term by the junior choir of the said church.

The alleged libel suit against Dr. Daniel H. Williams will be like a tempest in a teapot.

The people want a new board of school trustees, with but a few exceptions.

Commissioner J. W. Ross will do his duty towards the people and our schools.

On Friday, the 17th instant, quite a pleasant crowd gathered at the residence of Mrs. Will Queen, the occasion being a lawn fete by the Home Mission Society for the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church. Miss Hattie Ross delighted every one with several selections on the piano. The recitations of Misses Burrell and Hill were excellent. Quite a handsome sum was realized for the church.

Israel A. M. E. Church has made a splendid selection in securing M. Wm. Wallace for the directorship of its choir. Mr. Wallace is the assistant director of the senior choir of Nineteenth Street Church.

Among the lady soloists of this city, Miss Helen Adams ranks among the first. Her rendition of "Abide With Me" last Sunday evening at the Metropolitan Church was truly a pleasing effort, highly appreciated by the immense audience present.

It is said Mr. Louis Ambler contemplates connecting himself with one of the leading junior choirs.

Mrs. Ella B. Walker, wife of Mr. J. T. Walker, returned from a protracted visit to her mother, near Warrenton, Va. She was accompanied by her niece, little Miss Geneva Taylor, and enjoyed many a trip to the White Sulphur Springs and the numerous mountain resorts near her former home.

Mr. Burrell Jefferson has consented to accompany the choruses, with the violin, in the beautiful cantata "David the Shepherd Boy," to be rendered shortly by the senior and junior choirs of the Nineteenth Street Church.

Miss Georgia Savoy is coming around all right, after such a severe attack of throat trouble. Miss Georgia is a favorite among those who know her. Her many admirers will be glad to see and hear her again.

Mr. Benj. Washington has been asked to take the Second Baptist choir. A better selection could not be made, as the success of the junior choir of the Nineteenth Street Church has been largely due to his able assistance.

There will be gold rings galore to be given by the management for the cantata at the Nineteenth Street Church, as the ladies are disposing of their tickets very fast.

The members of Metropolitan Church might well be proud of the successful management of its junior choir by Mr. W. W. Orme, the director. He is pleasant, energetic, and has the cooperation of all the boys and girls of his organization. This alone insures the continued prosperity of the choir.

TYRANNY IN THE SCHOOLS.

COMMISSIONER ROSS REQUESTED TO ACT. ARE TEACHERS TO BE BULLDOZED? WHY MISS BUSH WAS SUSPENDED.

Perhaps if Commissioner J. W. Ross would investigate the suspension of Miss Annie E. Bush and some others, he would create a vacancy at once in the trustee board. The BEE of course will not indorse insubordination any more than it will remain silent and permit supervising principals to act arbitrarily to wards teachers. It is believed that Mrs. Terrell has been imposed upon by misrepresentation of facts. The alleged insubordination of Miss Annie E. Bush consists of her telling the principal of her building, Miss Lewis, that her health would not permit her to take the part in a school entertainment. When matter was submitted to Dr. Shadd he suggested that she should apologize. Superintendent Cook, who was not officially informed of the alleged insubordination, said that she had nothing to apologize for. It would be a good thing if the entire school board, that is the colored portion of it was reconstructed. The BEE is of the opinion that the entire colored board has out-lived its usefulness and should be abolished.

When ever school officers permit subordinates to act tyrannically to teachers, The BEE is of the opinion that a change is absolutely necessary. The colored members of the school board, no exception are permitting their own superintendent to be insulted by supervising principals who have no more authority than other teachers. The people are looking for a change of trustees. The charge against some of the school officials, is that they are unreliable. This The BEE can testify to. Above all things a school trustee to enable him to set a good example for children should be able to tell the truth. The people demand a change.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL.

The colored High school is in the need of a reorganization. There are incompetent teachers in that school who should be removed. There are teachers studying professions which makes it impossible for them to improve the school.

OFF FOR OHIO.

Major Charles F. Dick of the Republican National Committee and Judge Day left the city last Tuesday evening for Cleveland, Ohio. Maj. Dick in speaking to a representative of The BEE, said he was certain that the republicans will carry the state.

Hon. John P. Green left the city Tuesday for Ohio where he will make several speeches, Hon. B. K. Bruce left the city Monday night for Ohio. He is booked for several speeches.

BRUCE IN THE WEST.

HE MAKES A GREAT SPEECH.

(Special to the BEE.)

Springfield, Ohio, Sept. 22, 1897.

Grand preparations were made for the big meeting to-day and the coming of Ex-Senator Bruce, who arrived last evening and was tendered a magnificent reception by the John Brown G. A. R. Post, where he made a most eloquent and touching speech.

To-day he spoke to an audience of fully 12,000, making one of the ablest arguments upon the tariff and finance ever heard in this city. He was at his best, and for more than two hours held his vast audience spellbound. He spoke in glowing terms of the administration of Major McKinley, and predicted for it one of the most successful, for it would bring prosperity and plenty to the country. He urged the colored voters to present a solid front for Gov. Bushnell and that peerless leader, Senator Hanna. Although there has been much uneasiness and muttering of discontent among the colored voters out in these sections, it is believed by those who heard Senator Bruce's powerful appeal, that his speech will do more to cement this vote than all the work done by others in this direction.

If he can be kept in the campaign till the close, there would be no fear of the final outcome.

MRS. T. V. HAWKINS FREED.

It will be remembered that Mrs. T. V. Hawkins, whose husband stated at the time of his arrest that he had given her a portion of the money he had stolen from the tax collector's office, which caused her immediate arrest by the enterprising detective (?) office, was dismissed in the police court by Prosecuting Attorney Mullowney this week.

SENATOR DEMAS.

From the Augusta Union.

The democratic papers of New Orleans and Louisiana are raising a great howl because the President has appointed Hon. Henry Demas naval officer at the port of New Orleans. Mr. Demas is a distinguished colored leader whose record as a citizen is far better than that of the moss-backs who assail him.

HONOR TO DEMAS.

Paul, as temporary chairman, called the meeting to order, and in a pleasant vein expressed his unbounded delight at the magnificent ovation the people of the parish of Orleans had tendered Senator Demas.

Hon. C. C. Wilson, on assuming the chair, made a brief speech of welcome, to which ex-Senator Demas responded. Among other things he said:

DEMAS' SPEECH.

"To find fit words in which to thank you for this magnificent demonstration of your regards for me and your joy at my success, is well nigh impossible. Therefore, if I fall short of your expectations, ascribe my halting utterances to a heart overful with pride and joy at your devotion rather than to a lack of appreciation of your effort.

"The struggle which has been going on for more than five months has been a bitter one. Such a contest has no parallel in the political history of Louisiana. Never before has such bitterness in vituperation, such persistency in calumny, such malignity in falsehoods, such grovelling in indecency, such audacity in attack been shown in a political fight in our state. To strike us the opposition even dared to lift its reptile head and hiss venomously at the nation's chieftain and his political household. Undeterred by memories of the past, and undaunted by fears of the future they staked their all upon the hazard of a die and lost. Peace be with them. The winner can always be magnanimous—the conqueror can always forgive. And so with malace toward none and with charity toward all, we can relegate them to fitting obscurity.

"All this is past. Though we have met here tonight to rejoice over our victory, it is well that we consider the future. We must now consecrate our energies on the election that is to take place this winter. The pledges that were made by the republican party at the national convention in June, 1896, have been redeemed to the last one. McKinley, our American Napoleon, was nominated and he accepted these pledges as the exponent of his own ideas. He was elected and today he stands as the nation's head, with every promise fulfilled. Already we see prosperity springing up in every quarter of our country. We have practical evidence of it here at home. No other party has done as much as the republican party to bring about better times to our people. The tariff bill as passed by Congress affords Louisiana more protection for her industries than she has ever before enjoyed. The sugar planters are benefited, I noticed in the Associated Press dispatches that Mr. Leon Godchaux, the Louisiana sugar king, has ordered an increase of wages on his several plantations, an unfailing evidence of prosperity. The rice growers are benefited, the cotton growers are benefited, the wheat and corn growers of the north and west are benefitted, the great iron manufactuers and mine owners are benefitted, the mechanic and laborer are benefitted, in fact every industry in the United States is helped by this bill."

THE FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL.

A CONSPIRACY AGAINST DR. WILLIAMS—THE SURGEON-IN-CHIEF HAS ABLE COUNSEL.

The alleged libel suit against Dr. Daniel H. Williams is supposed to be a conspiracy on the part of those who are and have been opposed to him for some time.

Dr. Williams is everywhere fortified and will be defended by able counsel.

The alleged libel suit is Dr. Williams' answer to certain false and malicious charges that were made against him to the Senate District Committee by W. H. Johnson, formerly his private secretary.

The result or the trial, it is alleged, will show others behind it and such physicians who have been opposed to Dr. Williams for some time. He is not at all disturbed in mind, and neither does he fear the outcome of this suit.

Dr. Williams is a positive character, and a man who will fight when he is attacked. The people in this community have a high opinion of the surgeon in-chief of the hospital, and will give him their cordial support.

COUNTERFEIT MILEAGE TICKETS.

Recently there appeared in Pittsburg, a man giving the name of R. C. Lucas, accompanied by a woman calling herself May Anderson, who attempted to dispose of counterfeit B. and O. Mileage Books. They did succeed in selling some of the books, and then departed for Cleveland, where they registered at the American House as R. C. Lucas and wife.

In their efforts to dispose of the spurious tickets, they aroused suspicions, which were at once communicated to the B. & O. Agent, who immediately took such action as led to the arrest and conviction of the woman, who was found guilty of selling counterfeit tickets, and sentenced to six months in the work house, and to pay a fine of $500 and costs.

The man succeeded in making his escape, but as he is known to the railroad people and the police, his arrest is only a question of time.

The B. & O. officials have taken every precaution to prevent the sale or use of these spurious tickets, and have expressed a determination to prosecute to the fullest extent of the law anyone caught attempting to use counterfeit mileage or other bogus form of transpotation, and will be especially vigorous against brokers found offering them for sale.

CROSS COUNTRY CYCLE CLUB.

On October 2 all the colored cracks will compete at the big meet given by the Cross Country Cycle Club at the International Athletic Park. The members of the club are untiring in their efforts to make this meet a grand success, with the view to repeat the same annually, and from the number of tickets already sold, the prospects for a very large attendance are very encouraging.

Extensive improvements in the park are now in progress; the seating capacity will be increased; the riders quarters will be remodelled so as to give them every facility possible, and a new surface will be put on the track, making it one of the fastest in the country. Many of the contestants are out not only for the prizes offered, but also for competition records, and they will have the satisfaction of riding on the track when in better condition than it has ever been before.

A sharp contest will be seen in the 5-mile U. S. championship race, for which all the crack riders from the different cities will be entered. The prize, a beautiful silver trophy, valued at $35, must be won three years in succession. The present holder, Mr. H. W. Freeman, jr., will be in fine form to prevent this trophy changing hands, while the local wheelmen are determined that at least it shall remain credited to Washington, D. C. The solid gold medals in the novice and 2-mile D. C. championship race, valued at $10 and $15 respectively, will bring out many new riders, and in the former, very likely, a few will "mix up" to add to the excitement of the occasion.

Considerable speculation is being made as to who will be the winner of the 1-mile open, for which a diamond scroll scarf-pin, valued at $25, will be awarded as the first prize.

LITERARY NOTES.

THE NEW TENANTS OF THE WHITE HOUSE.

The first and only pictures Mrs. McKinley has had taken in taken in ten years appear in the October number of The Ladies' Home Journal. They form part of a series of new and unpublished photographs of the new occupants of the White House. Mrs. McKinley wore for her picture her inaugural ball dress of silver and white brocade, at the special request of the President, who thought it particularly becoming. The excellent portrait of McKinley in his office was taken in June. The other pictures in the series show the many changes in the arrangements and furnishings of the rooms and grounds, made by the President and Mrs. McKinley.

POINTER
THE SIDE

lis:—Some men think all girls are , but they are mistaken. The t fault with some girls is, they men to become too well acnted with them. Men are peculiar es, the more distant you act tod them the more they respect you.

E.—I don't approve of even a telling her husband all of her ly affairs before marriage, as it terminate in no good.

ura:—It is not necessary to go in rning for the young man, even if were engaged. After marriage is enough for one to wear mourn-should her husband die, and even some men are not worthy of this ed respect.

m.—Books, flowers and stationery be accepted with propriety from a tleman. I don't approve of men ung girls always supplied with dies and fruits.

—Because your girl friend insists oing the direction she thinks she see the young man, is no reason you should go with her. Don't w yourself to be over-persuaded in a small case. I like a womanly
One who has an opinion and s to it.

e people who suspect everybody trust no one, are themselves guilty me grave offense.

nnie:—The most corrupt men, are ones who are always on the alert adies. They only seek their deg-ation and shame. You cannot e a man's principle, because he e likes to see certain fine qual-
in a girl.

ssie.—By no means marry a bach-
, as he is worse than an old maid.
e old maids will marry if they get ance and may prove to be very ac-able wives; but an old bachelor s or will try to know entirely too h about household affairs, to make greeable husband.

ciety:—When you introduce your friend, don't say "this is Miss—— cher in the public schools, or in some department." Rememhat it isn't one's occupation that telligent person wants to meet, e's self. When one has a title,
be used with propriety.

sitor:—When you go to visit your ry kin, you should by all means them some little present, as a n of remembrance while in the also don't take your worse wear-apparels with you, as country peoexpect a great deal of city people, they are more apt to notice your oly garments than your city friends hispering in company shows lack good manners, as does laughing

d on the street, or a bevy of girls ding on the street corners, discuss-young men.

S. Teacher:—How can you ex-for your pupils to honor the house od when they see and her you spering throughout the time of ching. You must practice your teaching, or else resign your day School class.

an.—No one knows the misery that arriage brings forth but those who married and not living happy. It ery easy for a single girl to give married sister points on how to age a husband.

—It is not wise to imagine a thing then talk about it. Fuss makers ally draw upon their imaginations.

ssie:—Some people are the most fortable when they have succeed-in making others uncomfortable.
s, no doubt, is the case with the
to whom you refer.

n.—It is said thot nothing is so re "but love will soften;" but take advice and don't marry the man
dly. If he has a mean disposition
't waste your life with him.

Don't boast of your own superiority be too much in love with yourself, o, you will not prosper.

ashion:—Red, brown, gray and en are the fashionable Fall colors.
tty cloth goods are seen; similar to mel's hair goods, only the hair is ger and smoother, but this will not e well, as it is not very durable in t weather.

Skirts have come down to five yards de and some much narrower. They ll be also seen touching the street.
e coming of trails is rumored.

ora:—Never accuse a person ex-pt you know he is guilty. We all ssess impaired judgement at times.

ac.—When men speak of women in ght cynical manner it shows lude-ss on their part, as well as an insult their mother and sisters.

It is amusing to see some would-be g men," trying to act big and comain because other do not see their reatness.

Inquirer:—Barnes history of Egypt
ves the "twelve labors" of Hercules.

S. S.—Never use words of large syl-bles. except you know the meaning,
so you will be ridiculed.

Francis:—You should not go any here without your parents' consent.
n obedient child is usually loved.

Ada:—Girls of sixteen, should be terested in their books and not in oung men. You can with propriety ake your debut at eighteen.

Julia:—A man of thirty summers can rtainly associate with ladies from ighteen to twenty years of age. I am the opinion that a man is really not sponsible or capable of entertaining roperly until he is at least twenty-five.

Never listen to a tell-tale. The per-n who will bring news will carry the

The following is issued for the information of the Fraternity:

First. Read the BEE, our organ; this is important; articles appearing are official.

Fourth. Brethren desiring to advance to the Chapter and Commandery will please see Companion D. F. Seville or E. W. Shields for information concerning the batch that will advance soon.

Fifth. Pay no attention to cranks, and watch people who are always telling stories and finding fault; these are what you call cranks.

Fraternally,
D. F. SEVILLE,

Aaron, the brother of Moses, the first high priest under Mosaic dispensation.

Abbreviations.—Masonic are much more in use among the French Mason than English or American Masons.

Acacia, the ancient name of a plant of whose species are evergreen; and at least six are natives of the East.

The Acacia Mimosa Nilotica of Linnaens is a shrub which grew in abundance in the neighborhood of Jerusalem. According to Jewish law no interments were permitted within the walls of the city, and as it was unlawful for the priests to pass over a grave, it became necessary to place marks wherever a dead body had been interred to enable them to avoid it.

Achishor was the Chamberlain in the household of King Solomon.

Adoniram, one of Solomon's chief lieutenants; he married a sister of Hiram, the builder.

Ancient Craft Masonry consists of the first, second and third degrees, are thus called because they are the only degrees that were anciently practiced by the Craft

The Master of a lodge issupreme in his lodge; there can be no appeal taken from his decision in the lodge; the Grand Lodge, however, can see that the Master does not rule his lodge in an unjust or arbitrary manner; in other words, call him to time if he oversteps his bounds.

The Ark of the Covenant (as we read of in Exod., xxv, 16) was a chest originally constructed by Moses at God's command; it contained many things of importance.

Ashlar is free stone as it comes out of the quarry.

The annual meetings of the Craft previous to the organization of grand lodges in their present form, were termed general assemblies.

Atheist; one who does not believe in God.

Aum Aun; the Hindoo and Egyptian chief deity.

Babel, in the Hebrew language, means confusion. The same was the name of the tower attempted to be built on the plains of Shinar A. M. 1875, about 140 years after the deluge; the Holy Writ informs us that it was destroyed by special interposition of the Almighty.

Bone: the word bone is corruptly pronounced in one syllable: is from the Hebrew word Boneh, signifying the builder, from the verb bonah, to build.

John H. Adams, Consistory, 32°, Valley of Alex., Va., together with the Council of Kodosh, the Rose Croix. and Lodge of Perfection, have selected their new officers. The following ill. brethren were elected to represent to the Supreme Council in Oct.: M. L. Robinson, 33°, A. F. Turley, 32°, Rev. R. B. Robinson, 33°.

Recently Universal Lodge No. 1 and Lincoln No. 2, of Alexandria, Va., held a very interesting meeting. Bro. Wm. Triplett, 32°., was present. The members of Universal are making arrangements to celebrate the fifty.second anniversary of the organization of the lodge. Bro. M. L. Robinson, 33°, W. M., is working hard to make the lodge the banner member of the State. Already he has applications of good men for admittance.
